

The Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,

Superintendent's Office,

Chicago Ill. June 28, 1893.

Col. O. C. Bosbyshell,

Superintendent

I sent to <sup>you</sup> by Regisd. Mail, some more Columbian Medals and badges.

I forwarded them, because they would be of more interest there, than here.

I bought of Mr. Kelekian an interesting coin of Ancient Bactria, (Gold Stater) for $22.00.
I place the coins I collect here in the Cases <sup>here</sup> and send the medals to you for the Cabinet. Mr. Kelekian is now getting through the Custom House a large invoice of coins from Constantinople.

Amount of the Appropriation expended $223.33

Leaving a balance of $76.67

Yours respectfully
R. A. Moore
Curator.
